-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 03 December 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112 (Second Paragraph)

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 10 recites the limitation "baked zirconium complex oxide" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102(e)

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 8-10 & 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Matsui (US Pat. 6,030,914).

Matsui discloses a method for producing a zirconia fine powder which comprises the steps of: (1) preparing a hydrous zirconia sol, etc., (2) mixing the hydrous zirconia sol with a cerium compound, to provide $\text{CeO}_2/\text{ZrO}_2$, etc., and (3) baking the mixture at a temperature of from 300 to 700°C to obtain the zirconia fine powder having ceria solid-solubilized therein, etc. (see col. 14, claim 1). Matsui further discloses that the zirconia fine powder may be added to a three-way catalyst comprising desired components, etc. and the catalyst component prepared may be wash-coated on a honeycomb-structured substrate made of cordierite, followed by drying and baking to obtain a catalyst for cleaning an exhaust gas (see col. 7, ln 11-22). The catalyst component including the platinum group metals, such as Pt, is exemplified (see Examples).

There is no patentable distinction seen between the claimed process and that disclosed by Matsui, thus the claims are anticipated by the reference.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 11 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Citations

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. All references are cited for related art. See PTO-892 Form prepared attached.

Conclusion

7. Claims 8-12 are pending. Claims 8-10 & 12 are rejected. Claim 11 is objected.

No claims are allowed.
